

SAPIENZA
UNIVERSITÀ DI ROMA

Dipartimento ISO

Seminar on Tibetan Diaspora in India

PEMA CHOEDON will discuss the Tibetan diaspora, in particular in India, from the point of view of current challenges, both in the community itself, and in its relations with the social and political landscape of its host country, with an emphasis on the tension between tradition and rapid social change.

BEST OF FESTIVAL
HUMAN RIGHTS WATCH
INT'L FILM FESTIVAL LONDON

HUMAN RIGHTS
WATCH

OFFICIAL SELECTION
OVER 30 FILM FESTIVALS
WORLDWIDE

A VOYAGE TO TIBET LIKE YOU'VE NEVER SEEN

DREAMING LHASA

A FILM BY RITU SARIN
& TENZING SONAM

lunedì 15 ottobre 2018

ore 17-20

LABORATORIO 3,
III PIANO, Dip. ISO

Introduce MARA MATTA

PEMA CHOEDON is Tibetan, born in India. After taking her MA at Jawaharlal Nehru University in New Delhi in English Literature, she obtained the degree of MPhil in 2017, thesis being on the Tibetan diaspora community in Nepal in the context of relations between China and Nepal. Since the beginning of 2018 she is a PhD candidate at the Department of Estonian and Comparative Folklore at Tartu University, Estonia. Her research focuses on gender and historical narratives in the Tibetan diaspora.

ISTITUTO MARCO POLO
Sapienza Università di Roma

Organizzazione scientifica mara.matta@uniroma1.it